It is in the interest of all to have Malay Singaporeans better educated and better qualified and to increase their contribution to Singapore's development.

*Mr Lee Kuan Yew
Kongress MENDAKI 1982
(Translated)*

The Malay/Muslim community received the news of the passing of former Prime Minister Lee Kuan Yew with great sadness. He was a visionary leader who cared deeply for the development of all communities as Singapore progressed into a thriving nation. The Malay/Muslim community comes together this Thursday to honour Mr Lee Kuan Yew.

Yayasan MENDAKI will be joined by other Malay/Muslim organisations and community leaders in paying tribute to Singapore's first Prime Minister at Telok Ayer Hong Lim Green Community Centre. Our community leaders will be sharing and reflecting on Mr Lee Kuan Yew as we remember his life and contributions. Dr Yaacob Ibrahim, Minister-in-charge of Muslim Affairs, will be present at the proceedings.

We welcome you to join us in this event and lend coverage to this community effort.
