Section H: Comprehension - Completion of Sentences (5 X 1 = 5 marks)

Read the text carefully and use the information to complete the sentences in questions 36 to 40.

A car hit a van not far from the airport. A policeman spoke to both the drivers. The following are their statements:

Van driver: I was on my way to the city from the airport where I had just delivered some goods. Something ran across the road. I thought it was a cat so I slowed down. I did not stop. A car then hit the back of my van and caused a dent. The crash caused my van to move forward and I almost hit the car in front of me. Nobody was seriously injured.

Car driver: I was driving behind a van about 5 kilometres from the city. The van stopped suddenly without any warning. I was driving quite slowly. I could not overtake the van because there were two cars coming from the opposite direction. My car hit the van and I cut my face on the steering-wheel. The front of my car was badly damaged.

Section I: Comprehension OE (5 X 2 = 10 marks)

Read the following passage and answer questions 41 and 42.

Soya beans are small round seeds that grow in pods on the soya plant. The hairy pods burst open when they are ripe. Each pod contains between one and four beans. The beans are of different colours, with the yellow ones containing the most oil. The soya plant has strong roots that can reach water deep in the ground. This helps the plant to grow well in areas where there is very little rainfall.

Soya beans are an important source of protein which all living things need to grow and to be healthy. Soya milk, made from soya beans, is a nutritious and tasty drink. People who are allergic to cow's milk depend on it. Soya beans are also used to make soya sauce, baby food, salad dressings and desserts.

Answer in complete sentences.

41. Which type of soya beans are used to extract soya oil?

Read the following passage and answer questions 43 to 45.

Mr Chow, a taxi driver, was heading home for dinner. He had just taken a tourist to Singapore Zoological Gardens. Feeling hungry, he decided to stop by at Mack's Burger to buy a meal.

As he was enjoying his burger at Bishan Garden, he noticed a fair-skinned young man following behind an old couple. The young man, who had long untidy hair, also wore dark glasses and a cap. Mr Chow thought that the young man was behaving suspiciously so he decided to keep an eye on him. As they were approaching a bench in the garden, the young man grabbed the old lady's handbag and fled. The old lady shouted for help while her husband just stood rooted to the spot in shock. Mr Chow put his unfinished burger down and gave chase.

The thief ran very fast and Mr Chow knew that he could not catch up with him. So he called out to passers-by for help. A group of teenagers joined in the chase and managed to catch the thief. Mr Chow and the boys pinned him down until the police arrived.

Answer in complete sentences.

How do I do well in comprehension?

This section aims to assess how well you have understood a given text. You should be able to comprehend a range of texts. . You then need to answer a series of open-ended questions based on the text read

Here are some steps you can take to do well in this section:

1. Preview the questions before reading the text. This will give you a rough idea what to look out for in the text.
2. Skim through the text to get a general idea of the passage (1st Reading).
3. Think of the answers to the questions as you read the text again (2nd Reading). Look out for clues in the question stems that point you to the specific part of the text where you can find the answer.
4. Skip the questions that you are not sure of. Circle the question numbers and move on to the next question. Do not spend too much time on one question. Finish answering all those questions that you can answer first. Then go back to the difficult ones.
5. Use specific reading strategies to understand the text. Eg. Annotation, highlighting key words, making short notes & looking for contextual clues.
6. Be specific in answering each question.
7. Remember to answer in complete sentences. Do not begin your answer with “It was because...”
8. Finally, check your tenses, spelling and punctuation.

Useful tips:

- Try to imagine the scenes in your mind when you read the text. This can help you to understand the text better.
- Read slowly when the text is difficult. Do not rush.

How should I go about answering the cloze sections?

There are basically three types: Vocabulary Cloze, Grammar Cloze & Comprehension Cloze.

Here are some steps you can take to do well in this section:

1. Read the text carefully & make sure you understand what it is about. Do not worry about the blanks yet.
2. Use your background knowledge to help you to understand the passage.
3. Your answer should be in the correct tense and part of speech. It should also be appropriate.
4. As you decide on your answers, do read forward and look backwards in the text for clues.
5. After completing the cloze sections, it is important to read through the entire passage to check your answers. This helps to confirm whether the passage sounds coherent.
