

Grammar MCQ

1	(2)	3	(2)	5	(2)	7	(3)	9	(2)
2	(3)	4	(3)	6	(1)	8	(3)	10	(4)

Vocabulary MCQ

11	(2)
12	(3)
13	(4)
14	(3)
15	(4)

Vocabulary Cloze MCQ

16	(2)
17	(1)
18	(1)
19	(2)
20	(2)

Visual Text Comprehension

21	(3)	23	(3)	25	(3)	27	(2)
22	(1)	24	(1)	26	(4)	28	(2)

Grammar Cloze

29	J	31	F	33	B	35	N	37	E
30	M	32	K	34	Q	36	A	38	C

Editing

39	daily	45	passionate
40	routine	46	before
41	whom	47	museum
42	posted	48	inspire
43	viral	49	However
44	at	50	doing

Comprehension Cloze

51	increase/rise/spike	56	against	61	drinking/consuming
52	compared	57	younger	62	symptoms
53	over	58	vaccine(s)	63	than
54	well	59	up	64	to
55	family	60	side	65	have/need

Sentence Combining

- 66 No sooner had I rung the bell than the door automatically opened.
- 67 Had Muru not played in the rain, he would not have fallen ill.
- 68 In order to deliver supplies to that village across the river, a bridge must be constructed.
- 69 Adam wanted to know why Amelia had chosen to sing that song for her audition.
- 70 Due to his anxiety about his test the next day, Wilfred could not sleep well.

Comprehension Open-Ended

- 71 no choice
- 72 The dolphins turn around in a great circle (1m) and began to follow the canoe (1m).
- 73 Yes, they were. The writer could see their large eyes (1m) and the colour of the eyes (1m).
- 74 This : The leak in the canoe did not worsen
 it : the (writer's) canoe they : the dolphins
- 75 shape : figure
 faint : dim
 happiness : ecstasy
- 76 2
 1
 3
- 77 (a) good omen
- 78 (any 2 of the answers below)
 - The dolphins swam around the canoe which helped the writer forget the pain.
 - The dolphins kept the writer company.
 - Thoughts of the dolphin motivated the writer to continue paddling.
- 79 stiff and crawled
- 80 False: The writer knew that only by the best of fortune would she reach the island. /
 The writer knew she had to be very lucky to be able to reach the island.
 True: The dolphins left the writer shortly before dusk. /
 The dolphins left just before the sun set.
 True: The writer fell because her legs were stiff from kneeling. /
 The writer fell because her legs were numb due to kneeling.